

Erstorientierung und Deutsch lernen

Basic knowledge about life in Germany and basic German language skills

The course contents are based on the common needs and interests of newly immigrated people and make your start in Germany easier.

Duration

Location

Topics

The course deals with different topics, for example living and working in Germany, customs, standards and traditions, shopping, health/medical care, education system, media use in Germany, local orientation, public transportation, regional particularities, talking about yourself and others, social relations, values and society (mandatory)

Conditions

- the participation is free of charge
- previous knowledge is not required

Participation

- Participation is primarily open to those seeking protection.
- When you are entitled to protection, have immigrated from a third country or the EU, you can participate in this course as well, if participation in the integration course is not (yet) possible.

Information and registration

Registration:

DAA Deutsche Angestellten-Akademie GmbH

Contact:

Mail:

• Fon:

• Internet:

Gefördert durch:

Bundesministerium
des Innern

aufgrund eines Beschlusses
des Deutschen Bundestages